SPONGEBOB SIGNS WITH MODELING AGENCY

Move over, Tyra Bass, there's a new supermodel in town. Fierce fashion plate SpongeBob SquarePants has turned the runway into a FUNway with his outrageous, avant-garde styles. The hole-ier-than-wow Pants has just signed a contract with the elite Manta Management, and his salary is rumored to be in the bazillions. There's already buzz of a reality show, a movie deal, and an absorbing line of hair care products.
